LITERATURE REVIEW

The 21th century as the technology world, social networking sites have providing the place where different companies can increase their marketing campaigns and catch wide range of consumers. According to Hansen, Shneiderman, and Smith (2011), the technology of social media has created radically a new ways of interacting the retailers and consumers.

According to Harris (2009) there are indisputably hundreds of social media platforms (e.g. Social networking sites, discussion groups, blogs, wikis, podcasts, streaming videos). As Chi (2011), said that social media marketing described as a "connection between brands and consumers, while social media marketing is providing a way to consumers for social interaction and centered networking." As Hesseet al. (2009) said that now consumers are expecting to gain 24-hour access to information by online applications and many other digital ways, they are also expecting 24-hour customer service as well as self-serve options through online sources. Now consumers want to leave the traditional system for getting information and want to utilize latest technology.

As Chi (2011), said that social media marketing described as a "connection between brands and consumers, while social media marketing is providing a way to consumers for social interaction and centered networking." Social media has gained the position as a primary source for choosing a product by the consumers (Cocktail Analysis, 2012; Fleishman-Hillard, 2012).

(Kotler et al., 2010; Armstrong and Kotler, 2011) said that the rapid development in the social media application has gained overwhelming majority in the Marketing practices. Companies market performance and the products of the companies influenced by the huge quantity of data and information, which are generated by users on internet (Kietzmann et al., 2011). By Social media analytics, companies gain competitive advantages by assessing the competitor's strategies, suppliers performance and consumer behavior, Fan and Gordon (2014)
